

Orange cannot be held responsible in the event of poor quality, problems with content or any other technical issue before or during delivery. Any problems must be reported to Plush Services.

Orange customers who have chosen to pay monthly will find details of all their purchases from previous months on their Orange bill along with other fixed and/or mobile telecommunications services to which they have subscribed. Payment of your bill remains the same. Any month started is due and charges are non-refundable.

Orange may put a block on additional Internet services other than telecommunications services at any time by simply informing you of this via our customer services department (by email or telephone).

All Plush subscriptions are valid for 1 month and renew automatically. You can unsubscribe directly in the app.
